Hi all,

We have a unique opportunity to showcase our students (and publicize our events) by performing on Saturdays in December, January, & February at the Clematis Streeet Theater! Visual artists may also be involved by displaying their art work!

The city of West Palm Beach has asked the folks at Palm Beach Dramaworks (who are about to take over the theater) to provide free entertainment to create interest in the new space. The city is looking for about 1/2 hour performances to take place in the lobby during the busy time of the Saturday green market.

Ideally, these performances would begin this coming Saturday (Dec. 4) & would continue for the next three months. Right now, they are trying to line some groups up for Dec. 11 and/or the 18th.

If you would be interested in showcasing your group, please contact Nanique Gheridian at Palm Beach Dramaworks at 301-9118 and/or naniquefl.@gmail.com.
Nanique would be happy to come to the school to speak to you and/or your students to get them excited about this.

The Dreyfoos Theatre dept. & Palm Beach Dramaworks have already been working together on a unique business partnership. The school district business partnership paperwork has already been submitted.

Your students may earn community service hours for their involvement.
Theatre students may earn both community service hours AND their theatre lab hours through this effort.

Theatre teachers: unfortunately, I'm not in this week to help raise some interest in this project for our students.
Perhaps one of you would be willing to find a group of our music theatre students to sing (w/ c.d. and/or karaoke tapes) on Dec. 4 or 18? Please tell them they can use the time for lab hours for this or next semester.

Hope this information helps you understand what a great opportunity this is to showcase our students, our school, & our programs while providing our students a unique opportunity to partner with the folks at Palm Beach Dramaworks.

Have a great week.
Best, Bev
